Sermon Notes

God Desires to be Known

1 Kings 20 (pew Bible pgs. 302-303)

Through God's Word and His actions, He reveals Himself to those with eyes to see. One theologian said, "It's one thing to believe in God; it's quite another thing to believe God." Just knowing God exists is not enough. He wants you to know Him and follow Him. In our passage today, Israel comes under attack by Syria and it really looks like a hopeless situation. But it was the Lord's intention to show His grace and power to Ahab once again, so that the king and all of Israel would know that the Lord was God, the true King of Israel. And He does that in some amazing "only God" ways. God's Word is certain and serious. Blessings come when we listen and obey, and judgment comes when we reject God and His Word.

1. God reveals Himself through His astonishing Grace.
2. God Reveals Himself through His Powerful actions on behalf of His People.
3. God Reveals Himself through His Righteous Judgment.
